- 25X1A 1. [REDACTED] report that since May 1, 1951 the Cominform headquarters in Hungary have been transferred to a secret hide-out in the Bökkt mountains.
2. "According to reports the new headquarters are located in 7 large buildings which were erected in a remote forest area not far from the highway leading to the once fashionable resort, Lillaförd, about 1 km from Molnarszikla. The surrounding forests have been cut in order to make the vicinity easier to control. The 7 buildings, each 3-4 floors high, have been surrounded by a concrete wall. Political police and plain-clothmen are guarding and patrolling the area, which is 'off limits' to the civilian population. A new road connects the premises of the headquarters with the main Lillaförd highway.
3. "According to rumors, a series of conferences, at which further steps to be undertaken against Yugoslavia will be discussed, will take place at this headquarters in the near future."
